

Message from the Headteacher

The festivities continue here at Vicar's Green as we move onto the last week of the winter term. All productions are now over and these were really well attended by parents and their friends and families. The children's speaking and listening skills and especially their signing skills were all demonstrated during the show. Key Stage 2 pupils took part in music concerts, which included recorders, African drums and singing. The comprehensive music provision at school over the years has impacted the children's musical ability positively and it was a delight to hear them perform at the concerts.

Next week ISS are serving Christmas lunch and children can wear their festive jumpers on that day. I am sure the class party letters have also been sent out by now. Finally, we have booked a Theatre company to perform a Panto for all children in Y1-6, and please may I request you to make the contribution requested as soon as possible.

Wearing the correct uniform to school is compulsory and helps to establish good habits and routines. Please take some time over the holidays to make sure your child has the correct school uniform and these still fit them. Please keep haircuts simple and avoid patterns and other elements that are not in accordance with the school uniform policy. Full details on school uniform are available on the school website.

Warm Regards

Iman Basu Roy
